

FEDERALS ABANDON BATTLESHIP DURING SIEGE OF MAZATLAN

Rebels Are Expected to Take City at Any Moment, According to Wireless Report From U. S. S. California

TOWNSPEOPLE IN PANIC; SHELLS FALL IN STREET

One American and One Englishman Reported Slain—U. S. Ship Captured by Mexicans Is Released

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, Mazatlan, Mexico, May 8. By wireless to San Diego, Cal., May 8.—The fall of Mazatlan seems to be imminent. The city officials embarked last night on the federal gunboat Guerrero and the steamer Lamtinit, both of which are ready to sail for Salina Cruz.

The American brig Geneva was captured on the high seas April 26 by Mexican transport Kortas, according to information received here today. At the demand, however, Captain Masquerod, of the United States cruiser, failed the ship was released.

The federalists have abandoned the gunboat Morale, a wild shot from the Guerrero today passed through a street of Mazatlan, creating a panic.

As a result of a three day battle, the townspeople are in a state of terror and hundreds are fleeing. It is reported that C. B. Helley, an American, and Walter Neal, an Englishman, were killed, and two other Americans, Walter Neal and Patrick Rial, were wounded near El Payer mine, in the vicinity of Hostatiquillo.

Lehman May Be Named As One of U. S. Mediators

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The South American mediator, continue the sessions today. They were satisfied from telegrams received from Mexico that the situation was improving.

Frederick H. Lehman, of St. Louis, formerly solicitor general, whose name has been mentioned as a possible American mediator in the mediation, will arrive here later today and have a conference with the president. The improvement in the place has been offered to him.

While interest was renewed today in the diplomatic phase of the Mexican crisis, there was an abatement of excitement of the program of preparedness in the war and military departments. Secretary Garrison explained that he was trying to gather troops at Galveston, that could be used to send to Vera Cruz and sixth brigades to Vera Cruz.

While the diplomatic and military phases of the intervention, observed through the press, have been the subject of much attention, observers turned to the situation in the United States.

BURNS AND LEHON ARE SUMMONED ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

Detectives Must Explain Why They Sent Annie Maud Carter, Frank Case Witness, Out of Court's Jurisdiction

MOTION TO SET ASIDE VERDICT IS POSTPONED

Hearing Will Be Taken Up Next Saturday — Judge Closely Questions Negroes About Who Furnished Money

Judge Ben H. Hill, of the criminal division of superior court, Saturday morning cited William J. Burns and Dan S. Lehon to appear before him next Tuesday to answer a charge of contempt of court for sending Annie Maud Carter, negro witness in the Frank case, out of the state. The action was taken after hearing the woman's testimony.

Judge Hill also ordered a postponement of the hearing of a motion to set aside the verdict in the Frank case on the ground that Frank was not in court, until next Saturday morning. This is the motion brought by Attorney T. J. Peck and others, who would be heard by Judge Hill in the library of the defense of Frank.

Judge Hill was in his chambers on the fourth floor of the Thirover building by 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Promptly at 10 o'clock Attorney T. J. Peck and others appeared and announced to them that Solicitor Hugh M. Lehon had been subpoenaed to appear in the case, and that he had decided to postpone the matter until Saturday of next week.

Mr. Tye then asked the solicitor if he was certain to be ready by Saturday.

"I can only say that I will do my best," responded the solicitor. "I am not certain to be ready by Saturday morning, but I will do my best."

Judge Hill then asked the woman, "Did you see Annie Maud Carter?" "Yes, I did," answered Mr. Peck. "She is a perfectly frank woman, and she is a witness in the case."

TWO ATTORNEYS PRESENTED

Then came an interesting development that two attorneys were in the court to represent the woman. Attorney George Gordon, who figured in the Frank case, and Attorney T. J. Peck, who is now in the case, presented themselves.

WOMEN GIVE SUFFRAGE BIG BOOST CAPITAL

Thousands Join in Parade and Mass Meeting at Washington for the Cause

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 8.—With banners flying, bands playing and women singing a marching song, several thousand suffragists from various sections of the country today paraded along Pennsylvania avenue in Lafayette square to the capital. There were 531 of them, representing every state in the union, and assigned one to each senator and representative, presented the members of congress petitions asking the passage of the Edmond-McClure re-voting for a federal constitutional amendment enfranchising women.

Immense crowds viewed the procession along the route. When the capital was reached, the women gathered on the plaza before the east front, where they played the "March of the Women" composed by Dr. Daniel Johnson of England, accompanying a chorus of 1,000 women, wearing robes of white, green and blue, and holding flags of green and white.

MASS MEETING HELD.
The parade followed a mass meeting in a downtown theater. Mrs. William Kent, wife of a representative from California, and at which stirring addresses were delivered by Mrs. Hollis, Lexington, field secretary of the Woman's Political Union of New York; Mrs. Donald Hooker, of Baltimore; Mrs. E. D. Smith, of England, vice chairman of the Congressional Union for Women's Suffrage; and Mrs. J. W. Smith, of England, vice chairman of the Congressional Union for Women's Suffrage.

The cavalry section was commanded by Mrs. Juliet Barrett Rublee, of Washington, who also was the march leader. The parade was led by Mrs. J. W. Smith, of England, who carried a flag. At their head rode Miss Edith Hill, daughter of former Representative of Connecticut, and Mrs. J. W. Smith, of England, who carried a flag. The parade was led by Mrs. J. W. Smith, of England, who carried a flag. The parade was led by Mrs. J. W. Smith, of England, who carried a flag.

Alfred W. Brewerton, Journal Cartoonist, Is Signally Honored

Par and wife have spread the fame of Alfred W. Brewerton. The Journal's talented cartoonist. Recently Mr. Brewerton completed a series of cartoons for the New York Times, and also a series of cartoons for the Chicago Tribune. His work has long been in demand for publication in various cities of the country.

Secretary Lane writes Mr. Brewerton that the employees of the interior department have organized a Home Club and that they desire of obtaining some of his works to hang in the club.

The secretary of the Interior, Mr. W. H. Taft, writes Mr. Brewerton, "My dear Mr. Brewerton, I enclose a card describing the Home Club. We wish to furnish the club with some of your works. It will be very glad if we could have one or more of your works. It will be very glad if we could have one or more of your works. It will be very glad if we could have one or more of your works."

Usual Explanations Will Be Asked for Reported Execu- tion by Mexicans

(By Associated Press.)
VERA CRUZ, Mex., May 8.—Even if the reported execution by General Vela of Private Samuel Paine, the orderly missing since Wednesday, prove true, army officers are inclined to regard one such incident as not to precipitate a large war.

They believe such an act would probably be that of a subordinate officer without authority and that General Vela would be wholly ignorant of it.

The Mexican City government asked for an explanation. It is assumed here that the matter will be taken up by the authorities at the primary for May 27. Each county office is asked to send a representative and the officials will not appear so far as Sheriff C. H. Dixon and Clerk of Court H. W. Williams.

Two candidates have announced for the state legislature from Green county to submit to the state primary. The candidates are Dr. L. H. Williams and Captain Alex. King of Greensboro.

The latter has represented the state legislature from Green county in the legislature of 1912. He is known throughout the state as a man of high character and high ability.

General Vela has asked that the Green county in the legislature of 1912. He is known throughout the state as a man of high character and high ability.

GEORGIA AND HER POLITICS

JUDGES JAMES H. PARK
WANTS TO BE RE-ELECTED
(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
GREENSBORO, Ga., May 8.—Judge James H. Park, of Greensboro, who is serving his second term as judge of the Ocmulgee circuit, has announced his candidacy for re-election to the bench of this circuit. He is the only candidate to enter the race so far, and it is not thought that he will have any opposition.

Judge Park has been prominent in the judicial circles since his elevation from the Greensboro bar to the bench of the Ocmulgee circuit. He presided at the famous Nix v. Wilson case, where the latter was framed, and the former now stands under the sentence of death for the murder of Mrs. King's husband.

The Greensboro executive committee has set the date for the county primary for May 27. Each county office is asked to send a representative and the officials will not appear so far as Sheriff C. H. Dixon and Clerk of Court H. W. Williams.
